HOW TO RESEND THE ACTIVATION LINK TO SETUP YOUR ACCOUNT

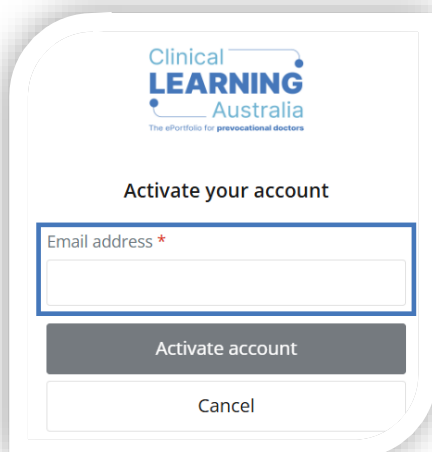

If the link in your Clinical Learning Australia welcome email is no longer valid or you cannot find a welcome email you can resend the activation link to your email address.

1.) Go to the CLA website – <https://cla.epads.mkmapps.com>

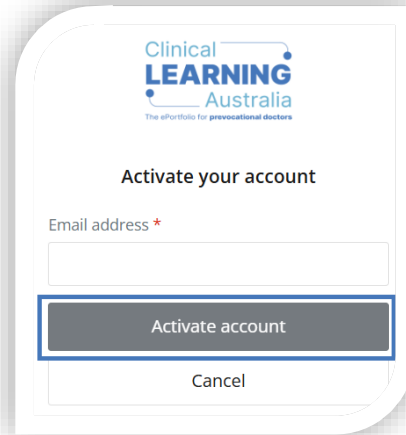

2.) On the initial screen you will see a link that states 'activate your account'

3.) Select 'activate your account', you will then you will be asked to enter the email address that is linked to your CLA account.

4.) After entering your email address, click 'Activate account'.

The image shows a mobile-style form titled "Activate your account" from Clinical Learning Australia. At the top is the logo for Clinical Learning Australia, with the tagline "The ePortfolio for prevocational doctors". Below the title is a text input field labeled "Email address *". A blue rectangular box highlights the "Activate account" button, which is positioned above a "Cancel" button.

5.) Check your inbox for the welcome email and follow the steps to activate your account.

NOTE. If you don't see the welcome email in your inbox, please check all junk/spam folders.
